Palm Beach County Property Appraiser's Office October 2023 Newsletter

Dear Taxpayer:

Welcome fall!

The end of the 2023 tax year is fast approaching! This month, my office will certify the ad valorem tax roll to the Palm Beach County Tax Collector's Office. The Tax Collector will mail the 2023 tax bills on November 1.

Hearings are also beginning for property owners who filed a petition because they disagree with their property assessment or denied exemption. They are led by the Palm Beach County Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller's Value Adjustment Board (VAB). On average, the number of petitions filed in Palm Beach County is low, typically less than 1% of the total parcels in the County.

As we move into the final months of the year, I'd like to remind all property owners to review their homestead exemption status to determine whether they might qualify for additional property tax saving benefits. There are several other exemptions such as those for seniors, the disabled, and members of the armed forces. You can research them all on our Do You Qualify page at pbccgov.org/PAPA.

This month's newsletter also highlights a personal achievement for me. The IAAO, a prestigious professional organization in the appraisal industry, has recognized me as an IAAO Fellow for dedicating my career to the advancement of the assessment field. It is an incredible honor and one I am proud to bring home to Palm Beach County.

Respectfully,
